

Hugh Curtiss Murdered.
Berryville, Va., Sept. 18.—Hugh Curtiss, of Washington, Rappahannock county, was shot and instantly killed last night at Berryville, by James Feltner, a well-known local hunter. Feltner, a well-known local hunter, had persisted in jumping on and off a merry-go-round which was run by Curtiss. Repeated warnings to Feltner had no effect, and a few words passed, when Feltner shot Curtiss through the heart.

Feltner claims that he acted in self-defense, as Curtiss hit him several times with a black "joe." Feltner is in jail at this place and has employed as counsel Messrs. Marshall McCormick and A. Moore, Jr.

The Lash of a Friend
would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me until I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, lagrippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hayfever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by Schmitt's Drug Store.

Elizabeth Collins, a 14-year-old girl who, her mother claims, was kidnapped last Thursday by a traveling evangelist who gave his name as J. H. Arnold, was located yesterday at Pulaski. The mother, Mrs. Henry Collins, who resides in Bristol, states that Arnold represented to her daughter that he wanted her to accompany him to become his organist in the religious service he was holding. The mother states that Arnold presented papers to show that he had formerly been in the service of the federal government, and represented that if the girl did not go voluntarily he was in a position to legally force her to do so. The mother appealed to the police yesterday, seeking to have her daughter brought home.

A Reliable Medicine—Not A Narcotic.
Mrs. F. Martin, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house. Schmitt's Drug Store."

John G. Hallman, aged 61 years of Limerick township Pa., shot and instantly killed his wife yesterday while hurrying to kill a hawk that was attacking his chickens. Mrs. Hallman, who was 57 years old, was standing at the window watching the hawk when Hallman, with his shotgun in his hand, tripped over a piece of carpet. The weapon was discharged, the load of shot tearing Mrs. Hallman's back. She died instantly.

When Herit Wins
When the medicine you take cures your disease, totes up your system and makes you feel better, stronger and more vigorous than before. That is what Foley Kidney Pills do for you in all cases of backache, headache, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness and general weakness that is caused by any disorder of the kidneys or bladder. Schmitt's Drug Store.

Don't Break Down.
Severe strain on the vital organs, like strain on machinery, causes break downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitter, the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Schmitt's Drug Store.

During a severe electrical storm in the lower part of Culpeper county Wednesday evening the driver of the team of Eugene Willis was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

Mrs. Jacob Wilmet, Lincoln Ill., found her way back to perfect health. She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor at times. A few weeks ago I got Foley's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief so continued till now I am again in perfect health." Schmitt's Drug Store.

James Clark McGraw, the oldest ex-Congressman, died at Kingwood, W. Va., from heart trouble after celebrating his ninety-seventh birthday.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by Walton & Smoot.

Proof of Great Merit is Scattered Throughout The Land.
While Root Juice is comparatively a new remedy, the most of the ingredients of which it is made, have been in general use for years, and are being prescribed daily by the best doctors of the land. Proof of the wonderful merits of Root Juice is in thousands of homes, scattered throughout the land. Thousands of people whom Root Juice has cured or benefited, are today advising their sick friends to try it, and but few, who take the advice, have cause to regret it, a fact which can easily be proved by any druggist say they sold hundreds of bottles of Root Juice to many who suffered for years with stomach, liver and kidney troubles, rheumatism and nervous weakness, but they never sold a medicine that gave as good satisfaction, or won as much praise as Root Juice.

The great blood making, nerve feeding, stomach, liver, kidney and bowel healing Juice should be investigated by all who suffer with any trouble of these organs. Root Juice will clear the most critical investigation. No claims are being made that cannot be proved, and much of the proof is at this point and vicinity. One does not have to go to California, Florida or any other far away place to see those who are recommending Root Juice. Many of this locality are praising the remedy to the skies, and much can be heard regarding it at Walton & Smoot's drug store.

Clyde J. Carpenter, 26 years a seller of papers and magazines on train between Washington and Baltimore, and Miss Beatrice Conrad, from Harrisonburg, were arrested at the Union station in Washington Friday afternoon upon their arrival from Harrisonburg, and the girl was sent to the House of Detention to be held pending word from her parents. The girl had gone to Washington with newsboy upon his promise to procure employment for her. She admitted that she left without the knowledge of her parents. She declared that Carpenter had promised to marry her, and he, when questioned, admitted that he was willing to make her his wife.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures. Sold by Walton & Smoot.

BIG CONCRETE SCOWS
To Be Used in Deepening the Canal at Panama.
The soft material dredged from the shallow lakes and river along the route of the Panama Canal must first be deposited in some sort of a floating receptacle, which can be hauled to a place where it can be used in building an embankment, or else be taken out to sea and dumped. For this service scows, or barges, are employed, and when they are full they are moved by steam tugs.

Three scows, made of reinforced concrete, are to be built by the government engineers for duty on the Pacific division of the canal. They are to be 64 feet long, 24 feet wide and 5 feet 8 inches deep. As it is not intended to devote the whole interior space to mud and sand, a large compartment will be constructed inside each scow. The side walls of this will reach from end to end, but partitions will be so placed that the compartment will be only forty feet long. Both the boat proper and the walls of the inner receptacle will be strongly reinforced with wire cloth and steel rods. This type of vessel was first constructed in Italy. So satisfactory was the behavior of the concrete, both in small boats and in barges, that other countries are beginning to follow Italy's example. Concrete is more durable than wood and can be made waterproof. At Owensboro, Ky., a huge concrete box, upside down, is used as a landing platform at which boats may discharge passengers and freight. This floating dock is 50 feet long, 16 feet wide and 3 feet deep. To insure buoyancy in case of an accidental puncture the box is divided into thirty compartments.

The Panama barges, when fully loaded, are expected to sink into the water only three feet. Besides mud and sand they will carry two or three tons of machinery. The latter will include a dredging pump and a motor of some sort for driving it.

Wood as Strong as Iron.
Recent official tests of the many valuable hardwoods native to Western Australia have made known the extraordinary properties of yate, beyond the range of the strongest of all known woods. Its average tensile strength is 24,000 pounds to the square inch, equaling that of good cast iron. But many specimens are much stronger, and one was tested up to 17 1/2 tons to the square inch, which is equal to the tensile strength of wrought iron. The sawn timber of yate is probably the strongest in the world. The tree grows to a maximum height of 100 feet, and has sometimes a diameter of 2-2 1/2 or even 3 feet.

Sheet Silver.
The cheapening of the price of sterling silver articles within a generation past, says a writer in the Journal of the Franklin Institute, has been due partly to the invention of methods of rolling silver into sheets from which the articles are stamped out by manufacturers, instead of being laboriously hammered out from rods of silver, which are the old process. Nearly all manufacturers of sterling silver articles purchase the silver sheets from mills that make a specialty of rolling them. Sterling silver contains 975 parts of pure silver to 25 parts of copper. The copper gives it the requisite hardness.

A Little Mound.
By the side of a little sandy mound stands a man, old, stooped-shouldered and with snowy locks. No sound disturbs the evening's quietude. But suddenly a flat clench and the aforementioned man is heard to exclaim: "Confound that wood-chuck!"—Judge.

Failed in Health
"My mother died six years ago," writes Miss Ruth Ward, of Jerseyville, Ill., "and left me to care for six children. I had never been strong; and this, with the shock of her death, was too much for me.
"I failed in health. I was tired all the time and did not want to go anywhere, nor care for company. I had the headache all the time and such bearing-down pains. A very dear friend advised me to take Cardui, as it had done her so much good, so I commenced to use it and now I am in good health."

Take CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic
Women's pains are relieved or prevented and women's strength is quickly restored, by Cardui, the woman's tonic. You yourself know best if you need it, or not. If you do need it, do not delay, but commence to use it at once. Every day of delay, only lets you slide further down the hill.
Don't wait, then, but begin to take Cardui today, for its use, no matter how prolonged, cannot harm you and will surely do you good.

POULTRY
A FIRELESS BROODER.
How to Make This Valuable Aid to Chicken Raisers.
Only during the late spring and summer is it advisable to attempt to brood chicks artificially without heat. Some forty years ago the theory was first advanced that chicks could be brooded artificially by confining the heat made by their little bodies, but not until quite recently has this theory received general attention. The assertion has been made that chicks could be brooded by this method out of doors during the most severe winter weather, and some who have tried it have been successful. The process has hardly left the experimental stage far enough, however, and the attempt to use it on a large scale should not be made until it has been tried on a small scale first.

But the fireless brooder may be employed for secondary use or for brooding in warm weather or in heat emergency cases where the hen leaves the brood a little too soon, when the brooder becomes overcrowded, or when the brooder is wanted for another flock.

The principal object sought in building one of these brooders is to make all parts easily accessible for cleaning and caring for the chicks; to confine the heat as much as possible and yet have a good supply of pure air; to have the hover adjustable and padded with plenty of heat-holding cloth, so the chicks may have something to press their backs up against as they do when brooded by the hen. The brooder shown in the illustration is made in four different parts, each of which may be quickly and easily cleaned. The outside measurement of the box is 2x2 1/2 feet. The height is eight inches. The floor is made to fit up in the box so that the four walls fit tightly on the floor of the brooder house and not on the floor of the brooder, as it may seem from the first glance at the illustration. Where the box sits on the floor of the brooder it is too easily displaced. Four holes are made in the Watch Your Turkey Hens.

Last spring one of my turkey hens stole her nest under a pile of lumber back of the barn, writes R. B. Robertson. Another chose the straw stack, and a very tame one set in a nest on the henhouse floor.
If yours elude you, look in out-of-the-way places. Turkeys like old boxes and barrels on their sides.
Last spring I had a turkey sit to occupy a sleigh box. Anything is better than tall weeds or grass, where dogs and other enemies so easily get them.
